

Professor Alta Schutte PhD FRSSAf FESC ISHF

Alta Schutte is Professor and Principal Lead of the Cardiac, Vascular and Metabolic Medicine Theme at the University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia; and the George Institute for Global Health. She is also Extraordinary Professor at the North-West University, South Africa. She has over 350 publications in the field of hypertension and cardiovascular disease, with involvement in numerous international consortia. She has a particular interest in the concept of early vascular aging and large artery stiffness. She is Immediate Past President of the International Society of Hypertension.